Hong Kong is a city located on the southern coast of China at the Pearl River Estuary and the South China Sea. It is surrounded by the South China Sea on the east, south, and west, and borders the Guangdong city of Shenzhen to the north. Hong Kong is well known for its expansive skyline, deep natural harbour and extreme dense population.

Hong Kong is a very popular place to form a company for foreign investors and businesses because it has a simple tax system with no VAT, no capital gain tax and no withholding tax. Hong Kong is a major international financial centre and is becoming an increasingly popular place to incorporate companies for international business purposes.

Why Form a Company in Hong Kong?

Hong Kong is fast becoming one of the most popular jurisdictions to start a business. Every year there are over 150,000 companies registered attracting investors and entrepreneurs from all over the world. There are many reasons why Hong Kong is a great place to form a company, it is seen to be a trustworthy stable environment, have a productive legal system and low business tax. A Hong Kong company registration is perceived by many to be a global leader in banking and business.

A Hong Kong company formation is straightforward and inexpensive. The sole owner of the company does not need to be a resident in Hong Kong or have a physical address, a holding address (registered office address) is sufficient. This address is used as the company's legal address for notices and proceedings and therefore is not the company's business address. The registered office address is included in our package.

A Hong Kong company formation is commonly used as a fast route to doing business in China and Western Countries.

Tax Information for Hong Kong Company Registration

A Hong Kong company formation offers the owners a low and simple tax system. It allows companies the opportunity to earn tax free profits when they engage in international business activities.

Profits Tax - this is charged at 0% for companies operating their business activities outside Hong Kong and 16.5% if operating business activities in the Hong Kong.

In Hong Kong there is no tax on company dividends or on bank interest received.

Hong Kong does not have capital gains tax, inheritance tax or estate duty.

Company Name

When thinking about the name for a Hong Kong company formation you can choose if you would like the name to be in English, Chinese or both.

Directors, Shareholders and Secretary

For a standard Hong Kong company formation, a minimum of one director is required, this director can be of any nationality and does not have to reside in Hong Kong. The director must be a minimum of 18 years of age.

A Hong Kong company registration allows the director and shareholder to be the same person.

When acting as a director of a Hong Kong company formation, the director's responsibility is to act in good faith for the benefit of the company.

They need to ensure the company records are always kept up to date.

The meetings of the directors and shareholders can take place outside Hong Kong.

Corporate Director(s) and Secretary(s) are allowed in Hong Kong company formations although at least one director must be an individual.

Please note that if the company has a complex corporate structure, an additional compliance fee may apply.

Share Capital

A Hong Kong company registration usually has the standard Share Capital of 10,000 shares which equates to 1.00 Hong Kong Dollars each.

However there is no minimum share capital requirement for a Hong Kong company formation and the minimum issued share capital is HK$1 only.

Issued and paid up share capital can be less than the registered capital.

Notice of Business Commencement

Filing the Notice of Business Commencement is a requirement with the IRD (Inland Revenue Department) within a month after the company starts to trade.

The business commencement does not necessarily mean that the company has incoming transactions, whenever you start purchasing office equipment, providing consultation to potential clients, setting up a website or printing name cards, your company can be deemed as operating.

Holding companies receiving dividends or payments for shares are also required to file the Notice of Business Commencement with the IRD.

We are able to assist you with filing the Notice of Business Commencement, please contact us for further information.

If the Notice of Business Commencement is not filed within the one month period, penalties will occur and also possible prosecution for the directors.

Annual Requirements for your Hong Kong Company Registration

A Hong Kong company formation does have annual filings.

The company must file an annual return each year on the anniversary of the time of the Hong Kong company registration.

The Annual Return will notify the registrar of any changes to the director, shareholders and registered office etc.

Company Accounts must also be filed yearly.

The Hong Kong company registered office address must be valid and renewed if required.

Yearly Renewal £975.00

On a yearly basis, a Hong Kong company must be renewed with the Registered Agent and Authorities in Hong Kong. Renewing your Hong Kong company formation ensures that it is kept in Good Standing with the authorities in Hong Kong. Any Nominee Officers will require renewing on a yearly basis.

The price for a Hong Kong yearly renewal is £975.00

The following is included in a Hong Kong company formation yearly renewal:

- Registered Agent
- Registered Office
- Government Registration Fees
- Annual Return

A Hong Kong Company is required to file an Annual Return on an annual basis, this is included in our yearly renewal fee. Hong Kong Companies are also required to file profit tax returns and they also have accounting requirements which must be met. We can assist you with these, however the cost depends on the activities involved within the company.
