Register of Beneficial Owners

All Ireland companies must now file the Register of Beneficial Ownership. A Beneficial Owner is a natural person who ultimately owns or controls a Company. This is usually reflected through the ownership of a sufficient percentage of the shares or voting rights in the Company.

As part of the filing, Companies must disclose the below information for the Beneficial Owners:

- Full name
- Date of Birth
- Nationality
- Residential Address
- PPS Number (we can assist with obtaining this)
- A statement of the nature and extent of the interest held by the beneficial owner

The Company Registration Office in Ireland will make low level access of the below information available to the public:

- Full Name
- Extent of ownership
- Nationality
- Country of Residence
- Date of Birth (Month and Year)

Our price to assist with filing the Register of Beneficial Ownership with the Company Registration Office is: 190.00 GBP

This can be offered at time of Incorporation.

As mentioned above, it is a requirement to disclose the Beneficial Owners PPS Number to the authorities.

PPS Number

Any Shareholder who holds more than 15% of shares and all Directors in any Irish Company must apply for a PPS Number.

It is not a requirement to obtain the PPS Number at time of Incorporation. However, all Directors are advised to apply for a PPS Number as soon as the Company has been incorporated, they will also be required to register for Income Tax.

CFS can assist with applying for a PPS Number and registering for Income Tax. The price for this service is: 295.00GBP

Offshore Bank Account

After forming your company you may wish to open an Offshore Business Bank Account. CFS International Formations have a close working relationship with a major bank in Ireland.

Why Register a Company in Ireland?

Ireland is fast becoming one of the most popular jurisdictions to start a business, it has a strong pro-business environment and corporation tax as low as 12.5%. Ireland has a double tax treaty with around 55 countries including most major trading partners, leading to Ireland being in the top 10 countries to do business in.

The republic of Ireland is within the EU.

A new company incorporation in Ireland can be registered within just 3-5 working days from the date the company papers are sent to the Company Registration Office (CRO).

There is limited liability on the shareholders, the shareholders are only at risk for the share capital that they invest within the company.

A company is a legal entity in itself. The officers of the company are separate to the company and if any legal action, debts are accrued, it is the company that will be responsible, not the officers within it.

The ownership of a limited company can be distributed between a large number of people or corporate bodies - you are not limited to just having 1 owner of a company formed in Ireland. If you do choose a company with a large number of owners, making changes to a company in Ireland is simple and straight forward to action.

Tax Information for your Ireland Company Registration

Many people choose and Ireland Company Formation due to the low corporation tax rates. Ireland's Corporation Tax Rate is 12.5%, one of the lowest in the world. The amount of Corporation Tax due is based on the company's income.

However, LTD cannot be lengthened to Limited. This should be considered with choosing a company name.

Directors, Shareholders and Secretary

For an Ireland Company Formation, it is a requirement to have a minimum of one Director, one Shareholder (these can be the same person) and one Secretary. The Director must be resident in the EU. All Directors and Secretaries must be over the age of 18 years under section 131 Companies Act 2014. There is no limits on how many people are in an Irish company. The ownership can be distributed between a number of people and are not limited to just one.

Nominee directors, shareholder and secretaries are permitted for a company registration in Ireland. Corporate shareholders are also permitted.

Share Capital

The standard share capital for an Ireland Company Formation is 1 share of 1.00EURO, the shares in an Irish company are flexible so you can have the shares at any value and have any number of shares.

Annual Requirements

The first Annual Return for an Ireland company formation is due 6 months after incorporation. Failure to file an Annual Return when due may result in the Company Registration Office issuing penalties or even striking the company off.

If assistance with filing the Annual Return is required, we will be happy to help with the filing.

6 monthly Annual Return €195.00

Once the 6 monthly Annual Return has been filed, the Annual Return will be due on an Annual Basis. With the second Annual Return, the company will be required to file Accounts. We are able to assist with preparing Dormant Accounts. If your company has been trading, you will be required to file Trading Accounts, we are able to refer you onto an Accountant should you require assistance with preparing these.

Yearly Renewal €499.00

On a yearly basis an Irish Company must be renewed with the Registered Agent and Authorities in Ireland. By renewing your company this ensures that it is kept in Good Standing with the authorities in Ireland.

The price for an Irish yearly renewal is €499.00

The following is included in an Ireland yearly renewal:

- Registered Agent
- Registered Office

Discover Ireland

Ireland is an island in the North Atlantic separated from the west coast of Great Britain by the North Channel, the Irish Sea, and St George's Channel. It is the second-largest island of the British Isles. Ireland is divided between the Republic of Ireland, which covers five-sixths of the island, and Northern Ireland, a part of the United Kingdom, which covers the remaining area and is located in the north-east of the island.

Testimonial

"CFS Formations made my client's Ireland Company Formation as easy and as straight forward as possible. Their knowledge, experience and expertise in the field ensured that I had the understanding on Ireland as a jurisdiction as this is a country I had never dealt with before. They made me aware of the process and I knew what was needed from the first email that I received. Any question or requirement that I had was no problem to them. I was assigned my own administrator from when I first enquired to when the incorporation was complete, I even had the pleasure of speaking with other offshore specialists within the team. Their customer service was second to none. I would recommend CFS to any client, colleague or friend who ever wanted to form a company not only in Ireland but any other jurisdiction that they offer."
