Why Form a Company in Romania

Romania is one of Europe's most promising locations for investors wishing to set up a new company. The most common type of company in Romania is a Limited Liability Company – Societate cu Raspundere Limitata (SRL). This type of business can easily be set up in Romania. This type of company is a legal entity that is separate from the individuals who run it.

Romania has been increasingly able to attract foreign investment due to its strong economy, its European Union membership, and its favourable legislation. This is why Romania has become a good onshore location for establishing a business.

Romania is a full member of the EU and is currently one of Europe's most promising locations for investors wishing to set up a new company. However, for some people it is recommended that expert advice is obtained to ensure that your business is going to be successful. The most common type of company in Romania is the Romanian SRL which is equivalent to a Limited Liability Company, it is a legal entity which is separate and distinct from the individuals who run it.

Tax Information for your Romania Company Registration

A micro-company pays a tax of 1% of its income, but it must have at least one full-time employee it can be the director or shareholder

Company Name

When choosing a name for a Romania company formation, you must ensure that the company name ends with 'SRL' which is the equivalent to Limited Liability Company. All company names must be approved and reserved with the register office in Romania. There is a few restricted words in Romania, which includes geographical locations and special approval is required to use the word 'Romania'.

Directors, Shareholders and Secretary

For a standard Romania company formation, a minimum of one director and one shareholder is required, it is not a requirement to have a resident Director. A Company Secretary is not a requirement within a Romania company formation.

The Director and Shareholder can be foreign nationals and there are no restrictions on nationality or residency. The Director and Shareholder can be the same person, which allows the company to operate as a 'one man company'.

A maximum of fifty Shareholders can be appointed within a Romania company.

Please note that if the company has a complex corporate structure, an additional compliance fee may apply.

Share Capital

The share capital does not have to be deposited when the company is registered. There is no maximum limit for the share capital, only a minimum (which is 1 RON).

Annual Requirements for your Romania Company Registration

For a Romania Company registration, annual requirements are minimal. On a yearly basis it is a requirement that a Romania company renews their Registered Office Address service. These services are included in the CFS annual renewal cost.

A Romania Company is required to maintain their accounting records in the Romania language. All companies are required to prepare and file annual financial statements at the end of the financial year. Certain companies may only be required to produce simplified financial statements and must also have a mandatory audit on their accounts.

The charge to file annual financial statements is not included in the CFS renewal price, please contact us for more information.

Yearly Renewal £1,990.00

On a yearly basis a Romania Company must be renewed with the Registered Agent and Authorities in Romania. By renewing your company this ensures that it is kept in Good Standing with the authorities in Romania.
